

QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY
BELFAST

IRISH NORTH/SOUTH CRIMINOLOGY CONFERENCE

BELFAST

17 - 19 JUNE 2024

CRIMINOLOGY IN TIMES OF CONFLICT:
RIGHTS, HARMS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

OUTLINE

Programme Overview.....	3
MONDAY, JUNE 17 TH 2024	3
TUESDAY, JUNE 18 TH 2024	4
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 19 TH 2024	5
Conference Schedule.....	6
MONDAY, JUNE 17 TH 2024	6
TUESDAY, JUNE 18 TH 2024	8
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 19 TH 2024	19
Poster Presentations.....	29
Plenary Speakers.....	30

PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

Monday, June 17th 2024

BC Building, Ulster University, York St, Belfast

PhD Research Training Day

10.30-11.00	Registration	Atrium, BC-03
11.00-12.00	Welcome Keynote: What are Criminologists For? (Shadd Maruna)	BC-03-115
12.00-13.00 Parallel Sessions 1	Research ethics in criminology. Applying for a Postdoc with ESRC: reflections and advice from a successful applicant.	BC-03-115 BC-03-115a
13.00-14.00	Lunch	Atrium, BC-03
14.00-15.00 Parallel Sessions 2	Approaches to conducting prison research with vulnerable adults: positionality, language and methods. It still gives me write 'mares: what has over 10 years of trying to get published taught me about academic writing?	BC-03-115 BC-03-115a
15.00-16.00 Parallel Sessions 3	Researching vulnerable groups: negotiating access, ethics and reflexivity. Presentation skills: telling the story of your research.	BC-03-115 BC-03-115a
16.00-18.00	Walking tour	Cathedral Quarter
18.00	Drinks reception and close (all welcome)	The Doc, BC-06-225

Tuesday, June 18th 2024

Queen's University Belfast, University Rd, Belfast

09.00-09.30	Registration	PFC Foyer
9.30-11.00	Welcome Plenary: Witnessing Harm and Ascribing Responsibility in Ongoing Asymmetrical Conflicts	PFC 0G/024
11.00-11.30	Tea/ coffee break	PFC Foyer
11.30-13.00 Parallel Sessions 1	Launch of Critical Criminology stream Probation in the spotlight Crime and security at the Border Youth, crime and justice (1) Culture, crime and harm Southern criminology and decolonialisation Exploring victimisation (1) Historical criminology	MST/02/002 MST/02/003 PFC/02/011 PFC/02/013 PFC/02/017 PFC/03/005 PFC/03/006A PFC/03/007
13.00-14.15	Lunch and North-South Networking Event: Funding and Collaboration Opportunities	MST/02/002 and PFC Foyer
14.15-15.45	Plenary: Institutional Abuses	PFC 0G/024
15.45-16.00	Tea/ coffee break	PFC Foyer
16.00-17.30 Parallel Sessions 2	Critical Activist Criminology National Police Doctoral Centre Prisons, hope and desistance Youth, crime and justice (2) Criminology, conflict and war Policing Exploring victimisation (2) Epistemic and social harm	MST/02/002 MST/02/003 PFC/02/011 PFC/02/013 PFC/02/017 PFC/03/005 PFC/03/006A PFC/03/007
18.00 19.30/20.00	Drinks reception & entertainment Conference dinner	Atrium, BC-03 The Academy Ulster University

PFC – Peter Froggatt Centre

MST – Main Site Tower

Wednesday, June 19th 2024

Queen's University Belfast, University Rd, Belfast

9.30-11.00 Parallel Sessions 3	Prisons and punishment Responding to child exploitation by adult criminal networks State violence and marginalisation Barriers to re-integration Lived Experience of Criminal Justice Crime, conflict and harm Occupational culture and well-being Technology and ethics	MST/02/002 MST/02/003 PFC/02/013 PFC/02/017 PFC/02/025 PFC/03/006A PFC/03/011 PFC/03/012
11.00-11.30	Tea/ coffee break	PFC Foyer
11.30-13.00 Parallel Sessions 4	Southern, postcolonial & minority ethnic views Young adulthood and the justice system Evidence-based practice & policy in the IPS Crime, safety and place Prison education and support Issues in Irish Criminology Issues in transitional justice	MST/02/002 MST/02/003 PFC/02/013 PFC/02/017 PFC/02/025 PFC/03/006A PFC/03/011
13.00-14.00	Lunch	PFC Foyer
14.00-15.00 Roundtables	Empathising with 'knowledge users' as a skillset and a research practice Book: Growing Up and Out of Crime Considering the Northern Irish Border Learning from Lived Experience in the Irish Criminal Justice System Quiet Testimonies: Archives, Memoir and Alternative Voices in Conflict and Transition Prison Inspection: Exploring research and practice on engaging with people in prison University and Prison Partnerships on the Island of Ireland	PFC/03/011 PFC/02/012 PFC/02/013 PFC/02/017 PFC/02/025 PFC/03/006A MST/02/003
15.00-16.30	Plenary: Borders, State Control and Harm and close	PFC/0G/024

PFC – Peter Froggatt Centre

MST – Main Site Tower

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

Monday, June 17th 2024

BC Building, Ulster University, York St, Belfast

PhD Research Training Day

10.30-11.00 Registration and refreshments

Location: Atrium, BC-03

11.00-12.00 Welcome and Keynote Address

Location: Atrium, BC-03

Welcome: Conor Murray, Ulster University

Keynote: Shadd Maruna, Queen's University Belfast
What are criminologists for?

12.00-13.00 Parallel session 1

Research ethics in criminology.	Applying for a Postdoc with ESRC: reflections and advice from a successful applicant.
Graham Ellison, Queen's University Belfast	Federico Genovesi, Ulster University
BC-03-115	BC-03-115a

13.00-14.00 Lunch

Location: Atrium, BC-03

14.00-15.00 Parallel session 2

Approaches to conducting prison research with vulnerable adults: positionality, language and methods.	It still gives me write 'mares: what has over 10 years of trying to get published taught me about academic writing?
Marianne Doherty, Ulster University	Kevin Hearty, Queen's University Belfast
BC-03-115	BC-03-115a

15.00-16.00 Parallel session 3

Researching vulnerable groups: negotiating access, ethics and reflexivity.	Presentation skills: telling the story of your research.
Jane Healy, Bournemouth University	Siobhán Buckley, Ulster University
BC-03-115	BC-03-115a

16.00-18.00 Walking tour of cathedral quarter

Location: Cathedral Quarter

18.00 Drinks reception and close

Location: The Doc, BC-06-225

Tuesday, June 18th 2024

Queen's University Belfast, University Rd, Belfast

9.00-9.30 Registration

Location: Peter Froggatt Centre (PFC) Foyer

9.30-11.00 Welcome

Plenary: Witnessing Harm and Ascribing Responsibility in Ongoing Asymmetrical Conflicts

Location: PFC/0G/024

Welcome: Shadd Maruna, School of Social Sciences, Education and Social Work, Queen's University Belfast

Chair: Amanda Kramer, Queen's University Belfast

*Penny Green, Queen Mary University of London
From Rakhine to Gaza: Witnessing Genocide*

Tamara Tamimi, Queen's University Belfast Gaza Genocide: An Integral Part of Israeli Settler Colonialism

Alice Panepinto, Queen's University Belfast Settler violence as State violence: Agency and responsibility for ideologically-driven crime in the West Bank

11.00-11.30 Tea/ coffee break

Location: PFC Foyer

11.30-13.00 Parallel session 1

Launch of Critical Criminology stream and Irish Penal Abolition Network	Probation in the spotlight	Crime and security at the Border	Youth, crime and justice (1)	Culture, crime and harm	Southern criminology and decolonialisation	Exploring victimisation (1)	Historical criminology
MST /02/002	MST /02/003	PFC /02/011	PFC /02/013	PFC /02/017	PFC /03/005	PFC /03/006A	PFC /03/007

Launch of Critical Criminology stream and Irish Penal Abolition Network

Location: MST/02/002

Chair: Gillian McNaul, Ulster University

Gillian McNaul, Ulster University and Keith Adams, the Jesuit Centre

Justin Pichet, Ottawa University

Phil Scraton, Queens University Belfast

Mo Mansfield, Abolition Futures

Probation in the spotlight

Location: MST/02/003

Chair: Nicola Carr, University of Nottingham

Louise Kennefick, University of Glasgow and Deirdre Healy, University College Dublin
Advise, Assist and Befriend? Understanding the Evolution of Probation Philosophies in Ireland

Lol Burke, Liverpool John Moores University
What makes a confident probation practitioner?

Nicola Carr, University of Nottingham
Through a Risk Prism - Serious Further Offending on Probation

Crime and security at the Border – Exploring the impact of the Conflict on border regions

Location: PFC/02/011

Chair: Lynsey Black, Maynooth University

Lynsey Black, Maynooth University

Telling Stories and Navigating Silence in Post-conflict Northern Ireland

Matt Bowden, Technological University Dublin, Amanda Kramer, Queen's University Belfast, and Allely Albert, Queen's University Belfast

Civil Society and the (Re)Production of 'Everyday Security' along the Border

Chloe Carragher, Technological University Dublin

Everyday Security: Minority experiences within communities across the island of Ireland

Danielle C. Jefferis, Maynooth University

Border Spaces, Vulnerability, and Identity

Youth, crime and justice (1)

Location: PFC/02/013

Chair: Louise Forde, Brunel University London

Louise Forde, Brunel University London

Creative Arts in the Irish Youth Justice System: A Children's Rights Approach?

Kylie Gill, University of Limerick

Title of paper How does the availability of and access to support systems during the transition from out-of-home care influence care leavers' contact with the criminal justice system?

Alan McKinstry, Queens University Belfast

Criminalised victims? Young people, child criminal exploitation, and perceptions of victimhood.

Áine Bernadette Mannion, University College Cork

An Examination of the Decarceration of Ireland's Children and Young People from Children Detention Schools, 1960-2020.

Culture, crime and harm

Location: PFC/02/017

Chair: Irene Zempi, Nottingham Trent University

Irene Zempi, Nottingham Trent University
Anti-Muslim Racism in Football

James Windle and Clara Schenk, University College Cork
A history of White Power Music: The co-opting of Punk and Oi! by a parasitical social movement

Jonathan Ilan, University College Dublin
Everyday Hustling: Hyper-entrepreneurialism and criminogenic culture in contemporary life

Jane Healy and Val Houghton, Bournemouth University
Developing a typology of disablist hate crime offenders: A contextual analysis: Authors

Yasmine Ahmed, University College Cork
The blind spot in reporting: far-right in Ireland and the Europol

Southern criminology and decolonialisation

Location: PFC/03/005

Chair: Jayne Mooney, City University of New York

Jayne Mooney and Yolanda Ortiz Rodriguez, City University of New York
Escaping Violence: Historical and Contemporary Narratives of Women Migrants' Journeys into NYC

Ola Kazeem Falodun, Technological University Dublin
Security and Sustainable Governance in African Context: The Role of the Western Nigeria Security Network.

Paolo Baffero, Ali Wardak and Kate Williams, University of South Wales
Legal pluralism in Bolivia: Plurinational Justice and Slow-burn Colonialism.

Exploring victimisation (1)

Location: PFC/03/006A

Chair: Dara Mojtahedi, University of Huddersfield

Antje Joel, University of Central Lancashire

Restating Power and Control? Moral Rationalisations of Criminal Justice Responses to Women who Retaliate to their Abusers with Force

Alison McDonald, Queen's University Belfast

"It's the unknown of what's coming next" Are women who have accessed the Domestic Violence and Abuse Disclosure Scheme in Northern Ireland feeling empowered by it?

Triona Kenny, Maynooth University

Optimising Therapeutic Jurisprudence for Victims of Crime: A Practical Response to Secondary Victimisation

Kelly Huie, Queen's University Belfast

Identifying trends and patterns in offending and victimization on Snapchat: a Rapid Review

Dara Mojtahedi, John Synnott, Maria Ioannou, Kalliopi Tzani-Pepelasi, University of Huddersfield

Political Orientation and Sex Trafficking Victim Support: Examining the impact of right-wing authoritarianism and nationality on attitudes towards victims of sexual exploitation.

Historical criminology

Location: PFC/03/007

Chair: Gerry McNally, The Probation Service (Ireland) (retired)

Gerry McNally, The Probation Service (Ireland) (retired)

The Crofton-Jebb Controversy 1858-63: The case for preparation for release and post release supervision

Ciara Molloy, University of Sheffield

A Conceptual History of Evil: Historical Criminology, Folklore and the Schools' Collection in 1930s Ireland

Kate Duffy, Maynooth University

Containing Contagion: Prostitution, Legislation, and Resisting Gendered Surveillance

Coleman A. Dennehy, Dundalk Institute of Technology

Crime and punishment in a post-conflict society – some thoughts on seventeenth-century Ireland

13.00-14.15 Lunch and North-South Networking Event: Funding and Collaboration Opportunities

Location: MST/02/002

Grab some lunch from the foyer of the Peter Froggatt Centre or outside MST/02/002 and join Lydia Lepecuchal, QUB Research and Enterprise to hear about European and Cross-Ireland funding opportunities, and to network with colleagues on future collaborations (further details TBC).

14.15-15.45 Plenary: Institutional Abuses

Location: PFC/0G/024

Chair: Linda Moore, Ulster University

James Gallen, Dublin City University
TBC

Maeve O'Rourke, University of Galway
TBC

Phil Scraton, Queen's University Belfast
Bearing Witness to the 'Pain of Others'
Fractured Lives, Dissenting Voices, Recovering 'Truth'

15.45-16.00 Tea/ coffee break

Location: PFC Foyer

16.00-17.30 Parallel session 2

Critical Activist Criminology	National Police Doctoral Symposium	Prisons, hope and desistance	Youth, crime & justice (2)	Criminology, conflict and war	Policing	Exploring victimisation (2)	Epistemic and social harm
MST /02/002	MST /02/003	PFC /02/011	PFC /02/013	PFC /02/017	PFC /03/005	PFC /03/006A	PFC /03/007

Critical Activist Criminology

Location: MST/02/002

Chair: Dawid Stańczak, Ulster University

Lucrezia Selva Curreri & Justin Piché, University of Ottawa

The Megaphone in Genocidal Times: On the Sonic Silencing and Illegalization of (Amplified) Political Dissent and Resistance

Lydia Dobson & Alexandria Bonney, Carleton University & University of Ottawa

Palestine, Prison Abolition and Pedagogy: Reflections on Silencing in the Academy

Dawid Stańczak, Ulster University

Researching state crime under curated transparency: defence exports to countries of human rights concern and the licensing regimes that enable them

National Police Doctoral College Symposium

Location: MST/02/003

Chair: John Synnott, University of Huddersfield

The Leadership role of women in Serious and Organised Crime

The impact of the National Referral Mechanism on increased exploitation

What works in interventions to tackle County Lines

The role of Race and Gender in Police Leadership

Understanding Cuckooing Offences: Establishing and national database of offence behaviour

Prisons, hope and desistance

Location: PFC/02/011

Chair: Mary Corcoran, Keele University

Mary Corcoran, Keele University
Prefiguring the small beginnings of change

Dean Burns, Ulster University
The experiences of men in prison who do not receive visits from family or friends: A qualitative systematic review

Paul Doke, Liverpool John Moores
The Forgotten Investment(s) of Criminal Justice: an exploration into the significance of capital amongst long-term desisters formerly touched by criminal justice.

Maria Cleary, Maynooth University
Ireland's Female Prisons: Researching Confinement in These 'Institutions of Hope'.

Youth, crime and justice (2)

Location: PFC/02/013

Chair: Megan Ryan, University of Limerick

Megan Ryan & Catherine Naughton, University of Limerick
Developing a standardised measure for potential use across Youth Diversion and targeted youth justice programmes in Ireland

Andrew Percy, Queen's University Belfast
Adolescent reward sensitivity, social sensitivity, and the emerging neurobiological basis of General Strain Theory.

E. O. Adeola Babatunde, University of Limerick
A Rapid Review on the Use of Virtual Reality in Youth Offending Risk Assessment

Brian Payne, Ulster University
Building Restorative Practice in Schools: Towards Transformative Education and Cultural Change

Shauna Armstrong, Maynooth University
Intersectionality of the Irish Youth Justice System, The Risk Factor Prevention Paradigm and the Care System

Criminology, conflict and war

Location: PFC/02/017

Chair: Róisín Mulgrew, University of Galway

Mirjana Gavrilović Nilsson, University of Edinburgh

A Crime Script Analysis of the Bosanski Šamac SDS Crisis Staff in the Bosnian War using ICTY Archival Testimony and Material

Samuel Williams, Cardiff University

The Escalation of Social Control in Times of Conflict: The War in Ukraine.

Róisín Mulgrew, University of Galway and Irish Centre for Human Rights

Implementing Punishment in the Context of Atrocity Crimes: Factors and Voices Influencing International Release Decisions

Gabrielle Nugent-Stephens, Ulster University

Social harm in covert conflict: US intervention in Laos, 1962 - 1975

Policing

Location: PFC/03/005

Chair: Matt Bowden, Technological University Dublin

Conor O'Reilly, University of Leeds and Graham Ellison, Queen's University, Belfast
(Northern) Irish Policing & The Sticky Police-Craft of COIN

Matt Bowden, Technological University Dublin

The Security Field: Crime Control, Power and Symbolic Capital

Jess Bonnan-White, Stockton University

Isolation and Rejection Among Police Stakeholders: Impact of Conflict-Related Displacement on Officers Implementing Peace-building and Reform Efforts

Exploring victimisation (2)

Location: PFC/03/006A

Chair: Helen Beckett, University of Central Lancashire

Helen Beckett, University of Central Lancashire

Journeys through Justice: Children's experiences of criminal justice responses to sexual abuse

Kate Gleeson, Macquarie University Sydney Australia and Sinéad Ring, Maynooth University

Based on the conditions of the day: comparing sentencing standards in non-recent institutional child sexual abuses cases, Ireland and Australia.

Elaine Kavanagh, Elaine Kinsella, and Patrick Ryan, University of Limerick
Caregiver perceptions about the experiences of children of CSAM offenders

Aisling McNally, University of Galway

Perusing the Perspectives of Domestic Violence Support Organisations using Structural Role Theory

Epistemic and social harm

Location: PFC/03/007

Chair: Shane O'Mahony, University of Hertfordshire

Angela Rogan, Queen's University Belfast

Countering Epistemic Injustice: The Role of a Facebook Group in Empowering Women to Advocate against Essure Medical Harms.

Shane O'Mahony, University of Hertfordshire

The brain disease model of addiction and epistemic injustice

Grayson Bartels, University of Edinburgh

The (un)willingness to recognise drug users as credible knowers in criminological research: an exploration of epistemic and testimonial injustice

Tobias Niblock, Ulster University

Exploring Young People's Involvement in Low Level Drug Distribution in Northern Ireland: Preliminary Findings From Practitioners' Perspectives

18.00 Drinks reception

Location: Atrium, BC-03, BC Building, Ulster University, York Street, Belfast

19.30/20.00 Conference dinner

Location: The Academy Restaurant, Ulster University, York Street, Belfast

Wednesday, June 19th 2024
Queen's University Belfast, University Rd, Belfast

9.30-11.00 Parallel session 3

Prisons and punishment	Responding to child exploitation by adult criminal networks	State violence and marginalisation	Barriers to re-integration	Lived Experience of Criminal Justice	Crime, conflict and harm	Occupational culture and well-being	Technology and ethics
MST /02/002	MST /02/003	PFC /02/013	PFC /02/017	PFC /02/025	PFC /03/006A	PFC /03/0011	PFC /03/0012

Prisons and punishment - Ethics, expansionist reforms, and generative justice

Location: MST/02/002

Chair: Keith Adams, Katholieke Universiteit Leuven

Shona Minson, Oxford University

Prison-based or Adjacent Research from an Abolitionist Standpoint

Louise Brangan, University of Strathclyde

Should we be talking about other people's pain

Keith Adams, Katholieke Universiteit Leuven

Trauma as a Lingua Franca: Expansionist Reforms and Female Imprisonment in Ireland

Mary Corcoran, Keele University

Generative Justice: exploring an emerging concept and praxis

Responding to child exploitation by adult criminal networks: the evolution of the Greentown programme

Location: MST/02/003

Chair: Seán Redmond, University of Limerick

Seán Redmond, Greentown PI

Background to the Greentown Programme – why understanding networks is critical

Jane Mulcahy, Research Fellow on the Greentown Programme

Overview of programme development on the ground

Eoin O'Meara Daly, Research Fellow, YDP Research and Development Team

Community Efficacy in one trial site

Catherine Naughton, Research Fellow on the Greentown Programme

Next Steps for the Greentown Programme

State violence and marginalisation

Location: PFC/02/013

Chair: David J. Hayes, University of Sheffield

David J. Hayes, University of Sheffield

Over-Criminalisation and the Mythic Functions of Criminal Law

Lydia Dobson, Carleton University & University of Ottawa, Faculty of Law & Prisoner Legal Supports

Teaching Abolition in an Era of Genocide: a presentation on overcoming efforts to silence solidarity with Palestine in the wake of October 2023.

Orlaith Rice, University College Dublin

Crimmigration in Sweden: Conflating Crime and Migration in Public Discourse

Cian Ó Concubhair, Maynooth University

Policing Housing Rights Activism in Ireland: Police vs Protester Legitimacies, and Ireland's Contested Revolutionary Legacy

Melissa Meyer, University College Cork

Reframing the high rates of suicide amongst the Irish Traveller community as social pathologies through Bourdieu's concept of symbolic violence

Barriers to re-integration

Location: PFC/02/017

Chair: Joe Garrihy, Maynooth University

Niamh Wade, Trinity College Dublin

Barriers to Change: The Closure of the North Liverpool Community Justice Centre

Claire R Silverstone-Bright, University of Sunderland

The Impact of Deficient Societal Acceptance Following Carceral Experiences Within Closed UK Communities

Joe Garrihy and Ciara Bracken-Roche, Maynooth University

The Secondary Punishment: A Study on Employer Attitudes to Hiring People with Criminal Convictions and Toolkit for Inclusive Hiring

Jayne Price, University of Chester

Widening participation: Criminal convictions and access to, and participation in, university life

Lived Experience of Criminal Justice: A Vital Lens for Research and Practice

Location: PFC/02/025

Chair: Michael McCusker

Contributors:

Shadd Maruna

Michael McCusker

Michael Irwin

Damien Quinn

James Leonard

Gillian Butler

Emma Green

Darren Linton

Crime, conflict and harm

Location: PFC/03/006A

Chair: Cheryl Lawther, Queen's University Belfast

Juneseo Hwang, University of Hamburg

The Political Economy of the Mobuoy Illegal Dump During and After the Troubles: A Green Criminology Perspective

Cheryl Lawther, Queen's University Belfast

States of Silence: Victimhood, Sexual Violence and the Self-Imagination of Non-State Armed Groups

Lydia Millar, Queen's University Belfast

The Slow Violence of Conflict-Induced Environmental Harm: Using OSINT as a Pathway to Accountability

Daniela Suárez Vargas & Rachel Killean, Queen's University Belfast

Women's Experiences of Environmental Harm in Colombia: Green Criminology in Dialogue with Decolonial, Black, and Indigenous Feminism

Occupational culture and well-being

Location: PFC/03/011

Chair: Ian Marder, Maynooth University

Ian Marder, Maynooth University

Building restorative occupational cultures in Ireland: recent research with police and prisons

Paul Gavin, University of the West of England (UWE) Bristol

The impact of organisational and operational stressors on the mental health of members of An Garda Síochána

Jessica Hassan, IMPACT Reserach Centre

Health and well-being survey – comparison of forensic and non-forensic healthcare workers

Sinéad Meade, Michelle Butler and Andrew Percy, Queen's University Belfast

"You have to be fluid". A Mixed Methods Investigation of Prison Officer Types as Related to Perceived Quality of Staff-prisoner Relationships and Staff Burnout in the Irish Prison Service.

Colette Barry, University College Dublin

Dying in semi-penal institutions: how do staff experience working with people at risk of suicide in Approved Premises?

Technology and ethics

Location: PFC/03/012

Chair: Lauren O'Connell, Dublin City University

Gillian Keilty, Queen's University Belfast

Knowledge-Making in the Face of Controversy: Investigative Genetic Genealogy, Privacy Concerns and Backstage Revelations

Iva-Nicole Mavrlja, Maynooth University

Debating the Introduction of Facial Recognition Technology in Irish Policing

Felix Elliott, Queen's University Belfast

Harm in police use of open source intelligence

Lauren O'Connell, Dublin City University

Implementing the Irish DNA Database: Contexts and Challenges

Kevin Hosford, University College Cork

Harmonizing Knowledge: Developing an Ontological Model for Enhanced Research Collaboration and Understanding of Ideologically Motivated Disruptive Cyber-Events

11.00-11.30 Tea/ coffee break

Location: PFC Foyer

11.30-13.00 Parallel session 4

Southern, postcolonial and minority ethnic views	Young adulthood and the justice system	Evidence-based practice and policy in the Irish Prison Service	Crime, safety and place	Prison education and support	Issues in Irish Criminology	Issues in transitional justice
MST /02/002	MST /02/003	PFC /02/013	PFC /02/017	PFC /02/025	PFC /03/006A	PFC /03/0011

Southern, postcolonial and minority ethnic views

Location: MST/02/002

Chair: Cydney Alison Sheridan

Cydney Alison Sheridan

The Importance of Incorporating a Southern Criminological and Postcolonial Perspective When Examining the Offence of Cow Lynchings in India

Brenda Mondragón-Toledo & Gabriel Mondragón-Toledo

The Impact of Feminist Resistance in Mexico on the Political Myth of State Sexual Violence

Aidan O'Sullivan, Damian Breen & Nathan Kerrigan

Not-so Critical Race Theory: A Retort to Hodgkinson et al's (2021) "critical assessment" of the Black Lives Matter Movement in the UK

Young adulthood and the justice system: Rights, harms, and responsibilities

Location: MST/02/003

Chair: Conor Murray, Ulster University

Siobhán Buckley, Ulster University

'Exit points' in youth justice systems: European approaches to young adults and transitions

Brendan Coyle, Ulster University

'They just treat you like a fing child': Young Adults, Infantilisation and the Criminal Justice System

Alison Coyne, University College Dublin

Navigating Transitions: Understanding Ageing out of Youth Detention

Jayne Price, University of Chester

The harms upon transition for young adults in England and Wales

Conor Murray, Ulster University

Young men, imprisonment and sources of vulnerability

Evidence-based practice and policy in the Irish Prison Service: A snapshot of current research

Location: PFC/02/013

Chair: Orla Gallagher, Irish Prison Service

Orla Gallagher, Irish Prison Service

Exploring the implementation of an expert by experience role in the Irish Prison Service

Anna Flynn, Irish Prison Service

Exploring the sentence management of men serving life sentences in Ireland

Molly Kelly-Grealy, Irish Prison Service

Investigating the development of new programmes for emotion dysregulation in the Irish Prison Service

Isla Donaldson, Irish Prison Service

A vision for a new model of treatment for individuals convicted of sexual offences

Crime, safety and place

Location: PFC/02/017

Chair: Louise Rhodes, Queen's University Belfast

Rob Mawby

Choosing a safe destination in an unsafe world: tourists' perceptions of safe destinations

Louise Rhodes and Graham Ellison, Queen's University Belfast

Student anti-social behaviour in Belfast's 'Holylands': Reappraising social learning theory

Jason Quinn, Technological University Dublin

Manufacturing a Desire for Home Security

Shamsoddin Shariati, Maynooth University

Law Compliance Dynamics: A Global Comparative Analysis of Traffic Law Obedience through Theories of Social Order and State Capacity

Matthew D Kirk, Scottish Police Authority

Policing, Confidence, and the Community: An Examination of Community Relationships with Local Police in "Deprived" Areas of Scotland

Prison education and support

Location: PFC/02/025

Chair: Kevin Warner, University College Cork

Kevin Warner, University College Cork

Education: a right for people in prison, or a tool to reduce reoffending?

Marianne Doherty, Ulster University

Moving beyond hyperbole and the label of 'transformative education': the benefits of prison-university partnerships according to prison-based learners

Christian Perrin, University of Birmingham

Peer Support in Prison: How Incarcerated People Make Meaning through Active Citizenship

Rebekah Brennan and Robert O'Driscoll, University College Cork

Unlocking Potential: ACE UCC (Level 7 NFQ) Diploma in Substance Use and Addiction Studies as prison education. SS1834 Understanding Drugs in a Social Context

Issues in Irish Criminology

Location: PFC/03/006A

Chair: Thomas Joyce, Tilburg University

Thomas Joyce, Tilburg University

The State of Irish Criminology

Patrice McCormack and Ian Marder, Maynooth University

A systematic scoping review of criminal justice research partnerships internationally to inform the Criminal justice Open Research Dialogue (CORD) in Ireland

Matthew McCallion, Queen's University Belfast

(Neuro)Diverging from Standardised Criminal Law?

Johanna O' Shea, Maynooth University

A View from the Bench: How Senior Judges View Probation Practice in the area of Dangerousness.

Rosemary Mangan, University College Dublin

Fatal violence in 21st century Ireland: Initial observations on homicide trends

Issues in transitional justice

Location: PFC/03/011

Chair: John Morrison, Maynooth University

John Morrison, Maynooth University

The Role of Social Learning in Engagement in Republican Paramilitarism in Belfast

Rachel Monaghan and Bianca Slocombe, Coventry University

Exploring the Prosecution Landscape for Terrorists in Northern Ireland

Damien Rea, Queen's University Belfast

Colombia, Northern Ireland, and the Transfer of Ideas in Transitional Justice

Julia Viebach, Queen's University Belfast

Judecraft Frontiers: Rethinking Rwanda's gacaca justice

13.00-14.00 Lunch

Location: PFC Foyer

14.00-15.00 Roundtables

Title	Discussants	Location
Empathising with 'knowledge users' as a skillset and a research practice	Ian D. Marder Patrice McCormack Kevin Wozniak Triona Kenny	PFC/03/011
Author Meets Critics: Growing Up and Out of Crime	Elias Nader Brendan Coyle Shadd Maruna Jayne Price	PFC/02/012
Considering the Northern Irish Border	Allely Albert Lynsey Black Matt Bowden Chloe Carragher Danielle C. Jefferis Amanda Kramer	PFC/02/013

Learning from Lived Experience in the Irish Criminal Justice System	Orla Gallagher Timmy Long Séan Kinsella Anthony Breen	PFC/02/017
Quiet Testimonies: Archives, Memoir and Alternative Voices in Conflict and Transition	Kevin Hearty Lauren Dempster Anna Bryson Nisan Alici Emily Moore Julia Viebach	PFC/02/025
Prison Inspection: Exploring research and practice on engaging with people in prison	Mary Rogan Jacqui Durkan Ciara O'Connell	PFC/03/006A
University and Prison Partnerships on the Island of Ireland	Gillian McNaull Marianne Doherty Joe Garrihy James Windle Rebekkah Brennan Conor Murray Kevin Warner	MST/02/003

15.00-16.30 Plenary: Borders, State Crimes and Harm

Location: PFC/0G/024

Chair: Kieran McEvoy, School of Law, Queen's University Belfast

Vicky Canning, Lancaster University

Torture in transit: the inextricable link between bordering, harm and torturous violence

Teresa Degenhardt, Queen's University Belfast

Tracing punitive elements in wars

Kristian Lasslett, Ulster University

Unaccountable, Privileged and Fearless: Investigating the Crimes of Ultra High Networth Individuals.

POSTER PRESENTATIONS

PFC Foyer, Queen's University Belfast (During lunch & coffee breaks)

Lily Graham, University of Central Lancashire

Uncovering adult family violence through 'messy methodologies': risk assessment and justice from the perspectives of police officers, practitioners, and victim-survivors.

Kelly Razey, Queens University Belfast

What is known from existing literature about young people's experiences of being in youth custody: A Scoping Review

Timothy G. Wykes, Wilfrid Laurier University

Restorative domicile: Meaning-making in homicide co-victims' campaigns for residential demolition

Scott Ronis, University of New Brunswick

Understanding and Supporting Family Members of People Who Are Alleged to Have Committed Sexual Crimes

PLENARY SPEAKERS

Victoria Canning is Professor of Criminology at Lancaster University, co-chair of Statewatch EU, Associate Director of Oxford Border Criminologies, and consultant editor at Justice, Power and Resistance journal. She has authored and edited seven books, including Gendered Harm and Structural Violence in the British Asylum System (2017) and Torture and Torturous Violence: Transcending Definitions of Torture (2023).

Teresa Degenhardt is a Senior Lecturer (Associate Professor) in Criminology at Queen's University Belfast, and Fellow at George Mitchell Institute for Global Peace Security and Justice. Teresa is interested in processes of criminalization and securitization in the international sphere, combining criminology with international relations. She has recently published a book entitled "War as protection and punishment. Armed International Intervention at 'the end of history'" (Routledge, 2023). Previously Teresa has published on borders and technologies, migrant detention, the blurring of border between the military and the police, and the representation of the war on terror. She was recently awarded the Emma Goldman Award from the Flax Foundation for scholarship that promotes feminist issues and social justice. Teresa was a visiting scholar at the Centre for the Study of Law and Society at Berkeley University in California (2014), at the Hamburg Institute for Social Research in Germany (2018) and in Turin University (2022). She is currently working on an edited collection on Immigration Detention in Europe at the time of Covid-19 from an abolitionist perspective (Bristol University Press) with Francesca Esposito and Annika Lindberg.

James Gallen is an associate professor in the School of Law and Government at Dublin City University. His research interests include human rights, international law and legal and transitional justice. His present research agenda and recent publications concern a transitional justice approach to historical abuse in consolidated democracies and in Christian churches. His first monograph Transitional Justice and the Historical Abuses of Church and State was published by Cambridge University Press in 2023 and is available free as a gold open access title.

Penny Green is Professor of Law and Globalisation and Head of the Law School at Queen Mary University of London. Professor Green has published eleven books and numerous articles. She has published extensively on state crime theory (including her monographs with Tony Ward, State Crime: Governments, Violence and Corruption 2004 and State crime and Civil Activism: on the dialectics of repression and resistance 2019), genocide, state violence, Turkish criminal justice and politics,

'natural' disasters, mass expulsions and resistance to state violence. She has a long track record of researching in hostile environments and her most recent projects include a comparative study of civil society resistance to state crime in Turkey, Tunisia, Colombia, PNG, Kenya and Myanmar; forced evictions in Palestine/Israel and Myanmar's genocide against the Rohingya. In 2015 she and her colleagues Thomas MacManus and Alicia de la Cour Venning published the seminal 'Countdown to Annihilation: Genocide in Myanmar' and in March 2018 'The Genocide is Over: the genocide continues'. Professor Green is Founder and Director of the award winning International State Crime Initiative (ISCI) and co-editor in Chief of the international journal State Crime. She is an Adjunct Professor at Birzeit University, Ramallah and is a Distinguished Visiting Professor at the Universities of NSW and Ulster. She is currently working on a comparative analysis of the Palestinian and Rohingya genocides.

Maeve O'Rourke is Lecturer in Human Rights at the Irish Centre for Human Rights, School of Law, University of Galway. She has authored and edited many publications on the rights of victim-survivors of gross and systematic human rights violations to truth, justice, reparation and guarantees of non-recurrence. In 2021 she was appointed as a member of a three-person independent Truth Recovery Design Panel to design a framework for a state investigation into Northern Ireland's Magdalene, Mother and Baby, and Workhouse institutions. She is a voluntary member of the Justice for Magdalenes Research group and co-director of the Clann Project.

Kristian Lasslett is a Professor of Criminology at Ulster University and cofounder of the International State Crime Initiative. His research focuses on using investigative methods to document and analyse, the complex transnational schemes used to execute serious economic crime; the associated methods used by elite operatives to conceal their illicit activity, launder reputations and elude accountability mechanisms; and the role played by a global enabling industry that underwrites these illicit activities.

Alice Panepinto is a Reader at the School of Law, Queen's University Belfast, which she originally joined as a Lecturer in 2017. Prior to joining QUB Alice worked at Warwick University and outside academia in the Middle East. Alice researches and publishes in the field of human rights and international law, and has acted as PI for two AHRC-funded projects on forcible transfer of Palestinian Bedouin communities in the Jerusalem periphery / central West Bank. Her monograph, Truth and Transitional Justice: Localising the International Legal Framework in Muslim Majority Legal Systems, was published by Bloomsbury/Hart in 2022. In spring 2024 Alice is a Research Visitor at the Bonavero Institute of Human Rights (Oxford University) to study settler violence as state violence in the West Bank.

Phil Scraton PhD, DPhil (Hon), DLaws (Hon) is Professor Emeritus, School of Law, Queen's University Belfast and has held visiting professorships at Sydney, Australia, Auckland, NZ and Amherst, USA. He holds a Leverhulme Research Fellowship. His research focuses are: critical theory; contested deaths and State responsibility; rights of bereaved and survivors following disasters; the politics of incarceration; childhood, rights and justice. Widely published, his seventeen books include Law, Order and the Authoritarian State; Childhood in 'Crisis'?; Power, Conflict and Criminalisation; The Violence of Incarceration; Hillsborough: The Truth; Childhood, Transition and Justice (forthcoming). He was primary author of the Hillsborough Independent Panel's groundbreaking report Hillsborough (2012); co-author of pioneering research into: the circumstances of the 1976-81 H-Block and Armagh prison protests (2021); the experiences of victims/ survivors of Mother and Baby Homes/ Magdalene Laundries (2021); police brutality at the 2022 Paris European Champions League Final (2022). He was awarded the Freedom of the City of Liverpool in recognition of his Hillsborough research and, having refused an OBE, in 2017 he was castaway on BBC's Desert Island Discs.

Tamara Tamimi is a PhD researcher in Law at Queen's University Belfast and scholar of the Economic and Social Research Council Northern Ireland and North East Doctoral Training Partnership Consortium. Tamara holds an MA in Human Rights Law from SOAS, University of London, where her MA dissertation, which focused on destruction of property and forcible transfer in Jerusalem, received the Sarah Spells Prize for the best dissertation of the 2015-2016 academic year. Tamara's research activity focuses on settler colonialism, gender equality, transformative justice, forcible displacement, and aid effectiveness of overseas development assistance. Tamara has also published extensively in peer reviewed journals and edited collections, including Development in Practice, Al-Shabaka- Palestinian Policy Network, University of Gottingen, Confluences Méditerranée, and E-International Relations.